Masterclass Leader as Coach

🕒 2 day 📍 Face-to-face, Live online, Workplace 💰 $ 2000

There is a very well-known parable from days past that applies to today's intersection between the business world and coaching; 'Give a person a fish and you feed them once, teach a person to fish and you feed them for a lifetime'.

Coaches, whether in a business or an external consultant, empower leaders to think differently, create self-awareness, and teach integrated thinking and observation. In turn, leaders with the skills to coach are more effective at motivating their teams, creating connections, building trust, and fostering an environment of innovation. Through coaching you can learn to build trust and rapport within your team and boost your communication skills by using active listening, reflection, empathy, and powerful questioning.

This is a hands-on program that teaches participants how to become coaches themselves, or coach their colleagues and leaders to new heights. To get the most out of this Masterclass, participants are asked to be ready and open to being coached and share their experiences with the wider group.

This two-day Masterclass:

- Is a practical program where you learn to coach by being coached.
- Provides skills and tools that can be implemented immediately.
- Encourages participants to think differently.
- Fully aligns to future trends in leadership capabilities.
